

Pumpkin Citrus Bundt Cake

TOTAL TIME: Prep: 20 min.
Bake: 55 min + cooking

MAKES: 14 servings

INGREDIENTS:

2 cups canned pumpkin
1-1/3 cups sugar
1-1/4 cups fat-free milk
2 eggs
1/2 cup orange juice
1/3 cup canola oil
1-1/2 teaspoons maple flavoring
1-1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract
1-1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1-1/2 cups whole wheat flour
1/4 cup ground flaxseed
2 tablespoons grated orange peel
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon poppy seeds
2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda

GLAZE:

1 cup confectioners' sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange peel
1 to 2 tablespoons orange juice

DIRECTIONS:

1. In a large bowl, beat the pumpkin, sugar, milk, eggs, orange juice, oil, maple flavoring and vanilla until well blended. Combine the flours, flaxseed, orange peel, baking powder, cornstarch, poppy seeds, pie spice, salt, and baking soda; gradually beat into pumpkin mixture until blended.
2. Transfer to a greased and floured 10-in. fluted tube pan. Bake at 350° for 55 – 60 minutes or until a toothpick inserted near the center comes out clean. Cool for 10 minutes before removing from pan to a wire rack to cool completely.
3. In a small bowl, whisk the confectioners' sugar, orange peel and enough juice to achieve desired consistency. Drizzle over cake.

Reviews, Releases and Upcoming Events For Crab Orchard Public Library

FALL / 2015

QUARTERLY STAFF PICKS:

Linda Recommends...

Bull Mountain
~ Brian Panowich

For generations, the Burroughs clan have ruled Bull Mountain in North Georgia, by running shine, pot and meth, right under the law's nose. One Burroughs has no wish to continue with crime so he becomes sheriff and the "feud" begins. Fast paced and reads like someone's family history. Excellent read.

Erin Recommends....

A Parchment of Leaves
~ Silas House

The story of Saul Sullivan and his Cherokee wife, Vine, in 1900's rural Kentucky. This is the first in a trilogy about family, tradition, and coal mining in Appalachia. A beautifully written story that makes you want to read more.

Rhonda Recommends...

Summer Rental
~ Mary Kay Andrews

Great story involving four different women. All with different personalities and all have different backgrounds. It's funny, happy and sad. A very good read.

Sue Recommends...

14th Deadly Sin
~ James Patterson

As usual, James Patterson's book was excellent reading but he left us hanging at the end. Now I can't wait for number fifteen to come out.

Autumn: After the Harvest

Once we are done with the harvest, having preserved, canned and dried our bounty of vegetables, fruits, nuts and berries, it's time to enjoy it.

Autumn has long been a time for celebration. Books such as Permission to Party, Entertaining 1-2-3, and CelebraTORI will give some great tips to help you celebrate.

You will find several books including Pumpkin Painting and Crafts to Make in the Fall to start your fun with Halloween.

You can even give your family and friends a fun holiday scare with DVDs. Available titles include Horror Classics, Carnival of Souls, Night Tide, or Steven King's The Mist. Of course, all time classic It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown is also available on DVD or in print.

Celebrating Thanksgiving is always special, mostly with our emphasis on the food. We have a wide variety of wonderful cook books to check out. Apples: A Cookbook, The Pioneer Woman Cooks: A Year of Holidays, Paula Deen's Southern Cooking Bible, and Martha Stewart's Pie and Tarts are just a few of the titles available.

Come into your library and look around. We have something for everyone to enjoy this fall season.

The largest pumpkin pie ever made was over five feet in diameter and weighed over 350 pounds. It used 80 pounds of cooked pumpkin, 36 pounds of sugar, 12 dozen eggs and took six hours to bake.

Spine-tingling classics still favorites among readers after more than 20 years

R. L. Stine's Goosebumps, now a major motion picture, continue to thrill readers of all ages. Stine's humorous horror stories were first printed in 1992 with the introduction of the original Goosebumps.

These were followed by Tales to Give You Goosebumps; Give Yourself Goosebumps; Goosebumps 2000; Goosebumps Horrorland; Goosebumps Hall of Horror; Goosebumps Graphix; Classic Goosebumps, re-released with new covers and bonus material; and Goosebumps Most Wanted.

Remember how much you enjoyed them yourself growing up? Your children will probably be just as thrilled and chilled as you were. Or possibly you might want to stroll down memory lane and read them again yourself.

Besides the original, R. L. Stine has written other series, including Fear Street, Ghosts of Fear Street, Space Cadets, and more titles that stand alone. Stine has also written books especially for teen readers.

As part of the Illinois Heartland Library System, Crab Orchard Public Library is one of 537 libraries across the southern half of Illinois that work together and share access to their materials for all library card holders.

These materials are available free of charge for borrowing and are delivered to your local library for pick up.

Take some time and come to your local library. Browse our selection of R. L. Stine books and more. We have something for everyone to enjoy, or will gladly order items in for you from other libraries.

Happening @ COPL

Book Club meets the third Monday of each month at 6 p.m. Bring a snack if you wish. Join us even if you haven't read the book. All are welcome!

Our book club is off to a great start. It has been a roaring success. We have met a few times. We have up to twelve members so far and it continues to grow. It's interesting how everyone has a different opinion on the same book. We have very lively discussions.

So far we have read The Homesman by Glendon Swarthout, Murder in Plain Sight by Marta Perry, True Sisters by Sandra Dallas, and Summer Rental by Mary Kay Andrews.

Our next selection is The Girl on the Train by Paula Hawkins. We will meet on Monday, November 17, at 6 p.m. In December, we will read The Mistletoe Promise by Richard Paul Evans.

Future selections will be discussed at the upcoming meetings. Suggestions are welcome and encouraged.

More information will be frequently added, so check back often to see what is new at your library. Don't forget to like us on Facebook to see updates on our programs and activities. We also have a Pinterest page. We want to stay connected with you!

Meet the new library director

New Library Director Erin Steinsultz joined the staff in mid-October. She had been working as the pricing specialist at the new Gander Mountain store in Marion.

Erin said, "I really enjoyed my work at Gander but I love libraries. Libraries are truly where my heart lies, and I'm looking forward to learning more about the communities and people served by Crab Orchard Public Library."

Erin has been a library director and assistant director at public libraries, and worked at the Melba Patton Learning Resource Center at Southeastern Illinois College.

"I've had some wonderful opportunities to learn from many great leaders in my career," said Erin.

Erin has a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Marketing from the University of Illinois, and a master's degree in Information Science and Learning Technology from the University of Missouri.

Erin is a Harrisburg native, but now makes her home in Benton. Her son, Ryder (pictured, reading with his dad, Drew Cima), will be two in early 2016. Ryder already loves reading and has an extensive vocabulary. "

He starts and ends almost every day with a book," said Steinsultz. "He especially loves the Pookie series by Sandra Boynton. He even loves to take a book to bed with him at night."

Steinsultz stresses the importance of early literacy and bringing children into the library, but feels a good library should have something for everyone.

"Great libraries like Crab Orchard have something to offer every community member," said Steinsultz. "I hope everyone will stop in to say hello, and see what the library has for them."

Feeling crafty?
